20 I. INTRODUCTION

21 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, R. 234.1 and 243.4, George Lopez and Ann Serrano
22 Lopez (the "Moving Parties") make this Application for a Court Order that Moving Parties'
23 Motion to Quash Subpoenas, supporting declarations, exhibits, and proposed order be filed under 24 seal. This Application also requests that any hearing on Moving Parties' Motion to Quash 25 Subpoenas be held in camera.

26 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

27 The Moving Parties have filed with the Court motions to quash two subpoenas (the 28 "Motions") directing each of them to appear on January 31, 2004, at the trial of People v. Michael

1 Joe Jackson ("Defendant Jackson"). The Motions are made on the grounds that neither George 2 nor Ann Lopez have any personal knowledge of any matters relating to the ten (10) criminal
3 charges (the "Charges") pending against Defendant Jackson, and can offer no relevant testimony
4 on behalf of Defendant Jackson at time of trial.

5 As set forth more fully in the Motions, George Lopez is a well-known comedian,
6 television and motion picture actor, and star of the ABC television network weekly program
7 entitled "The George Lopez Show." As this Court is well aware, Defendant Jackson is an 8 international, mega-celebrity, and the upcoming trial in the People v. Michael Joe Jackson case is 9 expected to draw unprecedented and international media publicity. Sealing the record and 10 allowing for this hearing to be held in camera, will prevent the media from seeking to speculate 11 before the "court of public opinion" if the motion and/or its ruling is "good" or "bad" for the 12 defense or prosecution in the case, thereby preventing any undue influence on prospective jurors
13 and avoiding potential prejudice to the minor, alleged victim, Defendant Jackson, or the 14 prosecution.

15 Allowing the public to inspect the Motions, will unjustifiably thrust George Lopez and his 16 wife, Ann into the eye of a media storm, resulting in harm and prejudice to George Lopez and his 17 wife Ann through potentially erroneous speculation and interpretation by legal analysts
18 concerning the Motions, while making Mr. and Mrs. Lopez fodder for the press, the tabloid
19 community, and the public at large, all at the expense of George Lopez, his career and his public 20 image.

21 III. ARGUMENT

22 CA Rules of Court, Rule 243.1(d) holds, in pertinent part that:

23 "The court may order that record be filed under seal only if it
24 expressly finds facts that establish: (1) There exists an overriding 25 interest that overcomes the right to public access to the record; (2)
26 the overriding interest supports sealing the record; (3) a substantial 27 probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if 28 the record is not sealed; (4) the proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and (5) No less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest.

1 In this instance, and as set forth in George Lopez's Declaration in support of his Motion to 2 Quash, Mr. Lopez's celebrity status will only add to the unprecedented media scrutiny which is 3 expected to surround the trial of People v. Michael Joe Jackson. This level and type of public 4 scrutiny is not substantive, and is not in the interest of justice.

5 On the other hand, there exists an overriding interest in avoiding potential prejudice to 6 either the minor alleged victim, the prosecution, or Defendant Jackson, from media and tabloid 7 speculation that may unduly influence the "court of public opinion" and/ or prospective jurors.
8 The interest of justice in securing a fair adjudication of the merits of this case, and avoiding
9 prejudice to either the minor alleged victim, the prosecution, and/or Defendant Jackson overrides
10 the de minimus, substantive value of public interest in the celebrity status of George Lopez and/or 11 his wife Ann. Absent maintaining the Motions under seal, and having the hearing of the Motions
12 in camera, there is significant potential for Mr. and Mrs. George Lopez being exposed to severe 13 harm and prejudice through reckless and scandalous speculation by the media and tabloid press
14 regarding what connection George Lopez and/or his wife might have to the minor, alleged victim 15 , the prosecution, or to Defendant Jackson and his alleged activities, which when reported would 16 sell the largest volume of newspapers or tabloid magazines.

17 Additionally, the proposed sealing of the Motions is narrowly tailored and there is no less 18 restrictive means to achieve the overriding interest, as the motion cannot be redacted in such a 19 way that the public cannot discover who the identity of the Moving Parties.

20 IV. CONCLUSION

21 Based on the foregoing, Moving Parties respectfully request that this Court Order that the 22 Motion to Quash Subpoenas, supporting declarations, exhibits, and proposed order be filed under 23 seal and that the hearing on this motion be held in camera.
