SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MICHAEL JACKSON,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1133603

FINDINGS AND ORDER RE: MOTION TO DISMISS

The motion to dismiss heard on March 11, 2005 describes the court's comments made on January 28, 2005 as a modification of the Protective Order. When, a witness, Martin Bashir, had filed a motion to clarify that the Order did not apply to him, the court stated that the Order did apply to him and that as a result Mr. Bashir was not permitted to disclose evidence related to the pending charges known to him by personal observation. It was further stated that Order did not preclude him from acting in his professional capacity as a journalist and giving commentary to the same extent that he would have been able to were he a journalist lacking any personal knowledge of the facts.

The clarification made January 28th was in no sense a modification of the Protective Order. That Order was never intended to be a prior restraint on press reporting of the case, and would have been unconstitutional if it had so intended. No limitation was placed on the right of 1 journalists to broadcast reports and commentary on the case. The Order addresses itself to 2 witnesses, parties, attorneys and court staff and orders them in their respective capacities to make

3 no public statements or release evidence about the case. There has been commendable general
4 compliance with this Order, and it is the court's assessment that this compliance has assisted 5 materially in permitting the selection of an unbiased jury and in avoiding distractions to the 6 necessary focus upon the task of trying the case in the courtroom.

7 The January 28th ruling was not a special exemption extended to Mr. Bashir. Any of the 8 other witness who is also a journalist is likewise permitted to ply his or her trade, and is not
9 restrained from reporting or commenting on the present case. They are, however, restrained
10 from discussing what they know from personal observation.

11 Nothing in the Protective Order prevents Mr. Jackson from acting or appearing publicly 12 in his capacity as an entertainer, or from speaking publicly on issues unrelated to this case. Nor 13 is there any restraint on any journalists who might wish to present to the public a different view
14 of the case than expressed by Mr. Bashir. Moreover, Mr. Jackson has been permitted on each 15 occasion on which he has made a request to make a public statement responding to adverse 16 publicity.

17 The Court further finds that there has been no identifiable impact as a result of Mr.
18 Bashir's broadcast on Mr. Jackson's right to a fair trial. The jury venire was instructed before 19 the airing of the Bashir programs not to watch programs or read news reports on the case. After 20 the case was aired a jury was selected with a fully adequate opportunity to examine prospective
21 jurors on whether they had been influenced by pretrial publicity. The sitting jury has been 22 regularly instructed to avoid media stories on the trial and Mr. Jackson, and to decide the 23 evidence on the case as presented in the courtroom.

24 The Court accordingly denies the motion to dismiss. As to the accompanying request for 25 the right to respond on an equal-time basis to refute the Bashir programs, the court is willing to 26 entertain such a request. As noted there is no restriction on the right of an interested journalist to 27 produce such a program. If, however, Mr. Jackson wishes to participate in such a program by 28 directly commenting on the evidence in the pending case or speaking from his personal

1 knowledge of the case, he is required by the terms of the Protective Order to submit his proposed
2 statement to the court for approval. This restriction exists by virtue of the approval by both
3 defense and prosecution to the terms of the present Protective Order.
