From: SSA [Redacted]

Subject: MICHAEL JACKSON;
DOMESTIC POLICE COOPERATION;

On September 7, 1993, Los Angeles Police Department, Sexually Exploited Child Unit telephonically contacted SA [Redacted] inquiring if the FBI would be interested in working a possible federal violation against Jackson concerning the transportation of a minor across state lines for immoral purposes, (MANN ACT). He advised that a meeting was scheduled on 9/10/93 at 10:00 AM at the office of the Los Angeles District Attorney, 310 West Temple, 17th Floor.

On Sept 7, 1993, SA [Redacted] contacted AUSA Patricia Donahue, (213) 894-0640 asking if she would like to attend the meeting. On September 8, 1993, AUSA Donahue advised that she checked with her front office and they had made the decision that the United States Attorney was not interested in prosecuting Michael Jackson for a violation of the Mann Act. She also indicated she would not be attending the meeting at the District Attorney's Office.

On September 8, 1993, SSA [Redacted] FBIHQ, VCMO, was advised of the scheduled meeting and concurred that the FBI could assist the Los Angeles Police Department and the Santa Barbara Sheriff's Office, under a Domestic Police Cooperation matter.

On September 10, 1993, a meeting was held at the Los Angeles County District Attorney's conference room. In attendance were Gil Garcetti, the District Attorney; Lauren Weis, Acting Head Deputy, Sexual Crimes and Child Abuse Division; William Hodgman, Deputy District Attorney, and investigators from the Los Angeles Police Department and Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office.

All in attendance were briefed of the investigation to date. The United States Attorney's position of not pursuing a federal investigation was expressed to the group. SA offered the assistance of the FBI in covering leads that may develop under a Domestic Police Cooperation classification.

On September 16, 1993, LAPD telephonically contacted SA to advise that two investigators from their task force would be travelling to Manila to interview two prior domestic employees of the Santa Barbara residence of Michael Jackson. Contact will be made to Legat Manila to advise of the travel of the investigators and their purpose in Manila. Other leads are anticipated to Legat Ottawa to request local authorities to locate and interview a social worker in Canada who may have corroborating information of misconduct by Michael Jackson.

Additionally, allegations of Illegal Interception of Communications violations was reported to the FBI on September 16, 1993 by the Los Angeles County District Attorney. ASAC Parker and SSA, have been notified. A meeting will be held at the District Attorney's Office on September 17, 1993, at 8:30 AM.

US detectives question Filipino couple on Jackson child abuse

MANILA (UPI) — Two California detectives investigating child molestation allegations against Michael Jackson met Wednesday with a Philippine couple who claims the megastar fondled young boys.

The detectives, one from Los Angeles, the other from Santa Barbara, began meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mariano Quindoy and his wife, Faye. The Philippine couple managed Jackson's Neverland Valley home from 1988 to 1990.

"As the media already knows, we are here to talk to the Quindoy's," said Sgt. Deborah Linden, deputy sheriff at the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Department. "We are not here to comment on the investigation," she added during a break in the meeting at a downtown law office.

Jackson has been haunted for weeks by allegations he sexually abused a 13-year-old boy. The boy has filed a civil suit against the 35-year-old singer in Los Angeles. No criminal charges have so far been filed against Jackson.

The singer's representatives have branded the allegations part of a failed plot to extort $20 million from Jackson, currently on a world tour promoting his latest album, "Dangerous." Family and friends have rushed to his defense, insisting the allegations could not be true.

Quindoy, a 59-year-old Philippine lawyer who left Jackson's ranch due to disagreements with other staff and a pay dispute, claimed he saw the singer fondle young boys on at least two occasions.

He and his wife said they had "reason to believe" the 13-year-old's allegations against Jackson, although the alleged incident occurred long after they had left the singer's employ.

Appearing relaxed and accompanied by three lawyers, Quindoy reiterated Wednesday that he was willing to testify if the case went to court. He declined to say whether the two detectives had requested his testimony.

Linden and Los Angeles police detective Fred Sicard arrived in Manila Tuesday night and are scheduled to remain in the Philippines until at least Saturday. They declined to comment on their planned activities during the week.

Mr. Quindoy plans to write a book about what he allegedly saw during his employment at the Neverland resort. He has denied his allegations could be designed to stoke interest in the manuscript.
CHILD ABUSE RAPS

Pinoy couple quizzed on Jackson

TWO American detectives yesterday began questioning two Filipino former aides to Michael Jackson about allegations the American superstar sexually molested a 13-year-old boy in his California mansion.

"We cannot comment on the interview or the investigation," detective Federico Sicard told reporters before a private meeting with Filipino lawyer Mark Quindoy and his wife Faye in Makati.

"We have to maintain our integrity on the investigation," said Sicard, a member of the Child Abuse unit of the Los Angeles Police Department's Juvenile Division.

Quindoy, 59, who has accused Jackson of indecently assaulting the youth, declined to comment when asked if the California detectives told him they wanted the couple to give evidence in Los Angeles.

In an earlier talk with newsmen, Quindoy said all the evidence he has to prove his claim was in a diary where he listed down the names and addresses of children and former Jackson employees who he said were willing to corroborate charges of sexual abuse against the superstar.

Jackson has denied the accusations and says he is the target of a $20-million blackmail attempt.

Anthony Pellicano, a private detective working for Jackson, confirmed the Quindoy family was employed at Neverland ranch but said they were "failed extortionists trying to resurrect themselves."

The couple are claiming Jackson owes them $283,000 in overtime pay.

A US embassy official attended the meeting along with Santa Barbara deputy sheriff Deborah Linden.

In a press conference last week, Quindoy said he saw Jackson engaging in "abnormalities that would constitute pedophilia and sexual molestation" on some of the young boys brought to Neverland.

"He (Jackson) is a gay. He is a homosexual. There's no question about that," said Quindoy, who worked as manager of Jackson's estate from May, 1988, to August, 1990.

The American detectives arrived in Manila Tuesday night and met with National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) Director Epimaco Velasco yesterday morning.

About 100,000 fans turned out on Tuesday to see Jackson in Tel Aviv, the latest stop on his "Dangerous" world tour. With Reuters report

SUPERSTAR AND FANS: Michael Jackson with Terry George in 1968

SUPERSTAR: Michael Jackson

made an extraordinary sexually fan, it was revealed yesterday.

Now details of the allegations made by Department.

Disturbing

Meanwhile, Terry George, now a

25-year-old disc jockey, has spoken for the first time about the disturbing late-night phone call Jackson made to his home when he was just a boy.

The multi-millionaire singer asked Terry, then 15, about sexual activities in graphic terms. At the same time the star described his own intimate physical actions during the conversation.

After the Jackson scandal exploded last week, Terry said: 'I can believe that the ALLEGATIONS ARE TRUE because of what happened to me. It had not been for that phone call I would never have believed it was possible. But when I first heard the news I immediately felt part of it all.

I’d only just met a handful of my closest friends, but I thought nobody would believe me. As last night I was lying awake, I was telling the truth about what Michael Jackson said to me.

He just came straight out with his question, just as I had expected. I felt embarrassed and awkward. I didn’t really understand what he was talking about.

“I tried to steer him off the subject and then I asked, ‘Do you believe I’m doing it now?’”

I asked ‘Are you? I felt panicked, I was shocked. I tried to talk about something else, but he brought it back into the conversation. I was uncomfortable.

The whole conversation lasted about 15 minutes, but he talked about this intimate contact not for five minutes or so. Then he said he’d phone me the next day.

‘Looking back I could have hung up, but he was a superstar and I was flattered and I didn’t want him to stop ringing me.’

The friendship with the Yorkshire boy started as part of Terry’s hobby of collecting autographs and interviewing stars. Paul McCartney, Elton John, Cilla Black, Boy George – all share a place in his treasured photo album.

Intimate

With a small tape recorder, a Christmas present from his oldest friend, Jackson would visit at short notice and inside hotel lobbies hoping to snatch a few words and a photograph. He had already captured some shots, but his greatest coup came in February 1999 when he coincided an interview from Jackson, then 20, who was performing in Leeds. Terry scurried down the lobby of the Dragonara Hotel listening for details of room numbers from porters and cleaners. One let it slip that the Jackson entourage had taken over the eighth floor. Terry slipped into the lift and knocked on Jackson’s door. The superstar answered and invited him into his suite for an exclusive interview.

The questions were innocent enough, but it was a magical 30 minutes for the young boy.

‘He spoke to me like a friend,’ recalls Terry. ‘He made me feel special and at the end of it he asked if we could keep in touch and we swapped telephone numbers and addresses.’

Several days later Terry answered the phone at his home in Leeds. Jackson was on the line calling from his London hotel.

‘Hi, it’s Michael . . . is Terry there?’

Again the conversation was easy and casual as the superstar chatted about the tour. Jackson returned to the US, but more calls followed over the next three months. Sometimes he rang in the middle of the night,” says Terry. ‘Once my father answered. He boasted that he’s spoken to Michael Jackson.

But then came the call in late spring 1999 that shattered the innocence of the relationship.

And very soon afterwards the calls began to peter out. They came to an abrupt end when Terry’s parents phone was cut off because he had run up a $40 bill calling the US. His mother said, ‘You’ve been phoning that Michael Jackson, haven’t you?’

Charges

Terry tried calling Jackson several times, reversing the charges from a phone box. When he got through it became clear his superstar friend didn’t want to talk.

The final rebuff came four years later when Terry tried to rekindle their friendship when Jackson came to London again. Terry tracked him down and was even photographed alongside his idol, but now the management were on hand to freeze the polite brush-off.

I felt used because had wanted my friendship when I was just a boy. Now I was a young man he just didn’t seem to . . .

SHOCKED: Terry George wants to know why Terry, looking back it was wrong of Michael. The call came from a young teenager, but a grown man.

Now Terry has an affidavit for the Los Angeles Police Department and is prepared to travel to California to help their inquiries.

Superintendent Michael Hames, head of the Obscene Publications Squad, said yesterday: ‘We will investigate this matter along the Los Angeles police.’

I hope they find out the truth because they did not like what was happening. They claim fear of threats by Jackson’s associates stopped them from talking until now.

The Quintuplets are seeking £500,000 (£280,000) in back pay from the superstar, who celebrates his 50th birthday today.

Mr Quintuplet, who is preparing a book about the singer, said, ‘Michael is such a big man I was trying to protect him, but it lingered in my mind that it was a circle duty to tell the truth.’

The initial scandal erupted when a devotee in a comedy battle alleged his 15-year-old son had been sexually abused at Jackson’s home.

Jackson’s staff claimed the man was trying to exert millions of dollars.

A Los Angeles TV station claimed last night that, while denying all allegations, Jackson’s staff had allowed the father from to keep quiet but he had refused . . .

Hoping

Meanwhile Detective Bill Dorris, of the Los Angeles police child exploitation unit, said he was hoping to speak to Jackson’s elder sister LaToya, who has voiced concern about Michael’s boy guests.

‘We are aware she might be able to identify other children who have spent time with Michael Jackson’s company,’ he said.

Visitors to the manch included Sinead O’Connor, star of Macavity: The Mystery of the Mogador, and Australian Wadi Robson, 18, who both said they were not concerned.

Several former employees called to the star’s defence. One held Quintuplet and LeToya had misinterpreted simple kindness. And James Sherrick, a former executive at Jackson’s ranch, said: ‘I never had an inkling of any mistakes . . . . I was never asked, they had their own beds.’

In the wake of last night’s denial Los Angeles detectives said that they were investigating Jackson’s life with a view to dropping him after a $5 million, ten-year association.
PRINCESS DIANA has revealed her vision of a down-to-earth monarchy for the future with William as "the people's king."

She has told close friends how she is determined that William will rule without the "arrogant" view of the Palace. The Princess has vowed to show her sons how ordinary folk in Britain live and make them "feel in their hearts the people's hopes, fears, ambitions and disappointments."

Diana has even decided not to divorce Charles so that she can shape the princes' personalities and future. Full astonishing story—Pages 4 and 5.
We back to Jacko... fans in London yesterday

There are hundreds of fans who have been following Jacko's every move in London. They are in support of Michael.

Banner headlines...

Thousands of fans have turned out in London yesterday to ring their support for Michael Jackson. They were seen saying: "Michael is a hero not a feeder" and "We are not against him." They sang Happy Birthday at the demo near Euston in Piccadilly Circus.

The fans are also demanding that McDonald's, who own the restaurant where the abuse allegations are made, must be investigated.

She called from Toronto, Canada. She and her husband work in Children Services.

On Sat 3-7-92, they took a train from Chicago to Grand Canyon. Then continued to CA. They had a compartment on CAL that Jackson had four compartments.

Jackson had a N/Z on 12/13 with him along with adult staff. Boy was ID'd as Michael's "cousin."

Jackson was very possessive of boy at night PR heard questionable noises through wall.

She was concerned enough to notify the conductor of her suspicions.
