People of the State of California v. Michael Joe Jackson	GARY M. BLAIR, Judicial Officer REPLY [Signature] CARRIE L. WILSON, Deputy Clerk
Findings and Order re Motion to Seal Motion for Order Allowing Use of Expert Testimony on the Subject of Child Abuse Trauma, Opposition and Reply Thereto	CASE NUMBER: 1133603

Plaintiff's Motion to Seal Motion for Order Allowing Use of Expert Testimony on the Subject of Child Abuse Trauma was filed under seal on January 10, 2005. The proposed redacted version was released on the same day. The Opposition was filed under seal on January 18, 2005. The proposed redacted version was released on January 20, 2005. The Reply was filed on January 20, 2005. The proposed redacted version was released that same day. On January 21, 2005, the court granted the motions to seal the documents.

The Court makes the following findings:

The documents reference and describe in some detail evidence, the admissibility of which has yet to be determined. In addition, the documents identify the complaining witnesses by name.

In this case, protection of the Defendant's right to a fair trial and protection of the identity of the minor complaining witness and his family overcomes the right of public access to the record. A substantial probability exists that those interests will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed as requested. The intensity of the media coverage in this case is unprecedented. Each court hearing is thoroughly reported and exhaustively analyzed by the media. It is substantially probable that if the evidence expected to be given at trial were to be released pretrial, it would be similarly reported and analyzed. The sealing order is necessary to maintain the integrity of the available jury pool by limiting its exposure to the expected evidence and testimony pretrial and to prevent exposure to inadmissible items of evidence. The Court has consistently held that because of the pervasive media coverage in this case, the Defendant's right to a fair trial outweighs public access. Those findings are relevant here and incorporated by reference. [See Findings and Order re: Motion for Protective Order, filed January 23, 2004 and Findings and Order re: Sealing of Search Warrant Materials, filed January 23, 2004]

There are no less restrictive means to protect those interests. The extraordinary circumstances present in this case overcome the presumption that cautionary admonitions and instructions to the jury pool would have a curative effect. It is far more desirable to avoid the prejudice in the first instance than to hope to identify unaffected jurors later.

The Court acknowledges that its order must be narrowly tailored to accommodate the maximum public disclosure. Redacted versions of these documents were released as noted above.
