

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA STREET ADDRESS: 312-C East Cook Street MAILING ADDRESS: P.O. Box 5369 CITY AND ZIP CODE: Santa Maria, CA 93456-5369 BRANCH NAME: Cook Division	FOR COURT USE ONLY FILED SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA COUNTY of SANTA BARBARA
People of the State of California v. Michael Joe Jackson	NOV 12 2004 GARY M. BLAIR, Executive Officer BY Carrie L Wagner CARRIE L WAGNER, Deputy Clerk
FINDINGS AND ORDER RE SEALING DOCUMENT ENTITLED "STIPULATION OF PARTIES REGARDING ITEMS SEIZED AT NEVERLAND RANCH"	CASE NUMBER: 1133603

On August 20, 2004, the parties filed a document under conditional seal entitled "Stipulation of Parties Regarding Items Seized at Neverland Ranch." A motion to seal the document was filed on October 18, 2004. The court now orders the document sealed.

The Court makes the following findings:

The document in its unredacted form specifies items of evidence the admissibility of which has yet to be determined by the Court. In particular, the document includes a detailed list describing with some particularity the items the parties have agreed to remove from the court's consideration on the motion to suppress.

In this case, protection of the Defendant's right to a fair trial and protection of the identity of the minor complaining witness and his family overcomes the right of public access to the record. A substantial probability exists that those interests will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed as requested. The intensity of the media coverage in this case is unprecedented. Each court hearing is thoroughly reported and exhaustively analyzed by the media. It is substantially probable that if the evidence expected to be given at trial were to be released pretrial, it would be similarly reported and analyzed. The sealing order is necessary to maintain the integrity of the available jury pool by limiting its exposure to the expected evidence and testimony pretrial and to prevent exposure to inadmissible items of evidence. The Court has consistently held that because of the pervasive media coverage in this case, the Defendant's right to a fair trial outweighs public access. Those findings are relevant here and incorporated by reference. [See Findings and Order re: Motion for Protective Order, filed January 23, 2004 and Findings and Order re: Sealing of Search Warrant Materials, filed January 23, 2004]

There are no less restrictive means to protect those interests. The extraordinary circumstances present in this case overcome the presumption that cautionary admonitions and instructions to the jury pool would have a curative effect. It is far more desirable to avoid the prejudice in the first instance than to hope to identify unaffected jurors later.

The Court acknowledges that its order must be narrowly tailored to accommodate the maximum public disclosure. A redacted version of this document has been released.
